

Brunswick Music Notes

Welcome to term two's edition of the 'Brunswick Music Notes' for 2023-24

MUSIC ASSEMBLIES

Well done to all the children who took part in the music assemblies on Monday 6th and 27th November 2023. We had lots of pupils perform a selection of instruments including the piano and the guitar. Agapi (year 4) also performed a Christmas song which she composed herself.

Pictured left, is Agapi with the lyrics to one of her other compositions. Agapi has been learning song writing through singing lessons which she has outside of school.

Next Music Assembly: Monday 29th January 2024

If your child(ren) is learning to play a musical instrument, such as the piano, trumpet, guitar, flute etc, and would like to perform a piece they are learning at our next music assembly, please contact Miss Feast via: music@Brunswick-house.kent.sch.uk

The parents of children performing are welcome to attend music assemblies. Please let Miss Feast know when you confirm your child's participation, so that we can arrange the appropriate number of chairs.

Articles for future music newsletters

If your child is learning a musical instrument, taking music exams or performing in a concert or musical performance, which you would like to share in future music newsletters, please send the details to Miss Feast via: music@Brunswick-house.kent.sch.uk

MUSICAL THEATRE

The children of the musical theatre after school club performed

THE NUTCRACKER

Thursday 30th November and Friday 1st December at 6pm.

Pictured left and below, are some of the cast at the Thursday evening rehearsal.

The Nutcracker raised £442.50, which includes tickets sales and donations. This money will be used towards future musical theatre productions. Congratulations to all the children that took part in these performances. Thank you to the parents/friends that supported the show, and to all the staff who helped with the show's rehearsals and/or at the performances.

MUSIC LESSONS (Individual or small group)

Brunswick House have peripatetic music teachers from Kent Music teaching during the school day.

We currently have pupils learning the piano, guitar and trumpet.

If your child(ren) would like to learn one of the above musical instruments, or another one of their choice, please register their interest via Kent Music:
