Friday 14th July 2023

Dear Families,

What a busy and exciting week we have had, mental health and well being workshops, music assemblies and an Arts competition. Please see details below.

On Thursday, the Foundation Stage children invited their families to their end of year Sports Morning and picnic. The weather wasn't quite as kind as it has been recently and we had to dodge a few showers or two. The sun came out in the end just in time for the picnic. Thank you to Miss Fullagar and the EYFS staff for organising and running such an enjoyable event. Have a lovely weekend.

Theatre School

Shooting Stars Entertainment came into school this week to perform their show for the children. It was focused on mental health, well being and resilience. It was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Music Assembly

Miss Feast held a music assembly on Monday. Children performed in front of their peers and staff on various musical instruments. It was a real treat to see what the children have accomplished in just a year.

If your child is currently in receipt of pupil premium and is interested in taking up music lessons, please email Miss Feast on music@brunswick-house.kent.sch.uk
