Dear Families

We had a fabulous ending to last week, with all of our children and staff decked out in red to support Red Nose Day.

The eagerly anticipated Poetry Slam event was a resounding success. The children really enjoyed rehearsing and performing their poems to their classmates and to the school, in assemblies. The rehearsals all paid off and the performance of each and everyone of the children was very special. Their parents and families had a very memorable evening. A special thanks to Mrs Coles for organising the event and to all the staff who helped with the preparations and clearing away.

Acts of Kindness

*Sophie 1A for helping another pupil who was having a tricky day.

*Mrs Zavar and Mrs Clarke would like to say that Caleb in 4W is so polite. "Every morning he says good morning and asks us how we are. He then says have a nice day. What lovely manners he has."

*The Breakfast Club children have been exceptional again this week. They would like to give a special mention to : Isaac, Isobelle, Justine, Jack, Poppy, Bonnie, Mia, Lucy, Lola, Mia

School Discos

A quick reminder that this Friday 22nd March is the date of the SCHOOL DISCOS:

Foundation Stage, Year 1 & Year 2 pupils: 3.30-4.15pm - Please send your child's disco clothes into school in a named bag on the morning of the disco day. They will be given time to change before their disco starts. They will place their uniform in this named bag, to come home with them after the disco. Please collect your child on time after the disco to give staff and parents enough time to set up for the next disco.

Year 3 & Year 4 Pupils: 4.30-5.30pm - These pupils will go home at normal time - 3.20pm and can return to school at 4.25pm. Please collect your child on time after the disco to give staff and parents enough time to set up for the next disco.

Year 5 & Year 6 Pupils: 5.45-6.45pm - These pupils will go home at normal time - 3.20pm and can return to school at 5.40pm. Please collect your child on time after the disco to ensure staff and parents are able to clear up before the school is shut at 7pm.

Thank you in advance to all the staff and parents who have volunteered to help with this event. We have already sold 300 tickets, please contact the school office if you would like to buy a ticket before Friday.
