

SPORTING NEWS AT BRUNSWICK HOUSE
TERM 2 2025—2026

Well done Charlie from Year 4 who took part in the 2025 Commando event.

Charlie completed the obstacle course which totalled 3km and did amazingly. He walked through mud up to his chest, went down a hill with a rope, walked through rivers, swam through tunnels, climbed over gates and then up a rope bridge and down a 12ft high wall.

Well done Aydin from Year 5 who was runner up in the local Junior Squash Championship which was held on the 4th October at the Mote Squash Club.

Well done Leon from Year 3 who was awarded "Gymnast of the Week" at Ninja Knights for his outstanding performance and dedication. We are proud of his hard work.

Well done Hanson and Blake from Year 3 who have had an amazing last few months playing for Vinters Park Football Club. They have won 3 tournaments in a row. Hanson was awarded player of the year as well as being captain for the side. Blake has established himself at the back, receiving 'man of the match' regularly.

Well done Leon from Year 3 was recently chosen as "Judoka of the Week" at his Judo Club. He was awarded a red belt for his progress and a medal in recognition of his hard work, discipline, and improvement in training. He is very proud of this achievement, and we are proud of his dedication and effort.

Thank you for all of your sporting contributions this term.
